

To the Hon. W. F. Miller, Judge of the Circuit court of Lee county:

Humbly complaining your orator, John F. Mulwee, would respectfully represent and say that he has been a resident of this state and county for more than one years last past, and that he yet resides in the state of Virginia. He would also show that in the year 18__ he was married to his present wife, Mollie. He did all in his power to make this wife happy. He was himself a loyal, dutiful, provident husband. But his said wife proved untrue to her marital vows, and committed the crime of adultery, which was done less than five years last past. And your orator here alleges that since the commission of the said adultery came to his knowledge that he has not lived or cohabited with his said wife. He also alleges that there was no fraud or collusion on his part in these acts of his said wife, and charges that they were done without his procurement or connivance, and against his will and consent and to his great sorrow and shame.

The object therefore of this bill is to obtain a divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony which have been contracted and now exist between his said wife Mollie Mulwee and himself; and his prayer is that the said Mollie Mulwee be made a party defendant to this bill and that she be required to answer the same and that upon a final hearing a decree be entered dissolving the said bonds of matrimony and granting all general and farther relief as the equity of his case may demand.

May spa. issue, &c., and he will ever pray, &c.,
